

American - hypophorized as otherwise.

Intro. 1. I can say what I please tonight.

1. Am going away before you get up.
2. Will return long after you will have forgotten what I heard.

2. I have said a number of things already.

a - The ~~band~~ of European Commercialism & Militarism.

b - Had the govt ^{2 yrs ago} ~~said~~ the army to hang Hearst, it would not have been necessary to send the army after Villa. The Mexican problem would never have arisen.

As the whole of Mexico including its people is not worth the blood of our boys it will take to subdue it.

3. Nevertheless, the situation as it is at present, demands that if I speak at all I must weigh my words carefully.

- We have reached the crisis.

- We must be careful how we influence public opinion.

I. Let's quickly dispose of the hypothesis.

1. It takes more than one generation to overcome one's love for his fatherland.

2. To favor one side or the other in the European war is not treason.

3. But such favor when allowed to work against this country in any way, is treasonable.

The American of German birth or descent who would place the German flag above the stars and stripes is ~~a~~ ~~traitor to his country~~ - not an American but a traitor and should be treated as such.

The same with the American of English or French descent a birth.

#. Equally as despicable as a traitorous foreign-blooded (9) American, is the American who would use his country for commercial purpose only!

The man who, for gain,
would precipitate his country into war, is a traitor of the blackest dye.

This kind is now trying to drive the United States to war. The war is almost inevitable. But its blood will be upon the heads of those who ^{caused the war} because of their commercial greed.

III. Dr. Frank Crane's "My Country" ③

IV. I love my country for all of these reasons, too, but there is one reason why I love my country that is stronger than all of them put together. I love the United States of America because it is my country. I love my mother because — but above all I love my mother because she is my mother.

V. Because I do love my country I want my country:

1. Always to be right
2. Never to show racial prejudice
3. To stand ready to help other nations, not to judge them.

I want my fellow citizens to put out of their own lives all enmity, impurity and cowardly selfishness, and to put into their lives truth and righteousness, justice and mercy, and love and loyalty as it is ⁽⁴⁾ in Jesus Christ, the ideal man.

1. Americanism, it is true must preserve itself; but true Americanism must also obey God and serve the world.

The girl who escaped the lions — "God has placed upon you the greater responsibility of living for Jesus Christ."

To die for our country is a responsibility that rests upon us all, but a greater responsibility than that is its own — namely — to live for our country!
